The Stock Broker may reduce or impose new limits urgently on the basis of the risk perception, risk profile of the client and other factors considered relevant by the stock broker including but not limited to limits on account of exchange/ SEBI directions/ limits (such as broker level/ market level limits in security specific / volume specific exposures etc.).

In case margin is kept in securities, the Stock Broker would value these securities after applying such haircut as deemed appropriate. Similarly for providing exposure to client, Stock Broker can pledge such securities in favour of Clearing Member/ Clearing Corporation.

The Stock Broker may be unable to inform the client of such variation, reduction or imposition in advance. The client agrees that the Stock Broker shall not be responsible for such variation, reduction or imposition or the client's inability to route any order through the Stock Broker's trading system on account of any such variation, reduction or imposition of limits. Sometimes client's sauda may go to IOC (Immediate or Cancel) instead of normal bidding if Stock Broker terminal is on square off mode.

The Stock Broker at its sole discretion can give extra exposure or intraday limit to the client, such extra exposure will automatically be squared off by trading mechanism without any further reference to the client approximately 15 minutes before the scheduled closing.

The Stock Broker shall have right to sell client's securities, both unpaid as well as collaterals deposited towards margins, or close out client's open positions, without giving notice to the client where there is a delay/failure of the client to meet the pay-in obligations and /or there is a failure of the client to bring additional margin to cover the increase in risk in the dynamic market conditions. a.

Unpaid Securities in Capital Market:

A) In case of unpaid obligation on T+3, the Stock Broker may sell the unpaid/ partially paid securities. In addition the Stock Broker may sell the collaterals deposited by the client towards margin and/or paid securities purchased by the client in earlier settlements where the sale of proceeds of unpaid securities are inadequate to cover the pay-in obligations and where the unpaid securities appear to be comparatively illiquid and cannot be sold at reasonable rates to the extent required.

B) The Margin Shortfall in F&O:

- I. Positions of the client may be closed out to the extent of margin shortfall on the T+1 basis.
- II. While computing margin shortfall, Value of unapproved securities shall not be considered.

III. As per the current Exchange requirements, the Stock Broker is required to maintain 50:50 ratios between cash and collaterals margin deposited with the Exchange. The Stock Broker shall therefore have the prerogative to insist for at least 50% of margin in cash and may not consider the value of securities over and above the cash component for the purpose of calculating margins shortfall and close out the F&O Position wherever it finds the deviation. However, sales made in capital market segment shall not be considered while closing F&O Positions on T+1 basis due to margin shortfall.

C) Intra-day Positions: The Stock Broker shall have right to close out any intra-day Positions taken by the client after a defined “Cut-off” time (Presently 15 minutes before close of market).

i. While selling the securities/ closing the clients positions, the Stock Broker may take into account the sales made by the client, Positions closed by the client or collections received from the client till cut-off time (Presently 02:00 PM).

ii. While selling the Securities/ Closing the clients positions, the Stock Broker may not take into consideration cheques/ Bank Drafts/ Pay orders deposited by the client with the Stock Broker until clear proceeds of such instruments are received by the Stock Broker in its bank account.

iii. The Stock Broker shall have the right to sell client’s securities or close out client’s open positions but it shall not be under any obligations to undertake this exercise compulsorily. The Stock Broker shall therefore not be under any obligation to compensate/or provide reasons of any delay or omission on its part to sell client’s securities or close open positions of the client.
